

CONSTRUCTION MAINTENANCE AND ALLIED WORKERS CANADA

Local 1237 Pre-Apprentice Bursary

When the Construction Maintenance and Allied Workers Canada Local 1237 decided to sell their Union Hall in Dawson Creek they donated the proceeds from the building to establish a Pre-apprentice Bursary fund.

There will be on average six $500.00 bursaries awarded each year. To qualify for one of these bursaries the following criteria is required:

Enrollment in a carpentry pre-apprenticeship program.

Be a resident of British Columbia.

500 word essay on why you want to be a carpenter.

To apply for this bursary please provide your name, phone number, the learning institute you are attending, and the dates your course is running, along with your essay to reception@cmaw.ca please put Local 1237 Pre-Apprentice Bursary in the subject line of the email.

Winning bursaries, essays may at the discretion of The Construction Maintenance and Allied Workers Canada be published in our membership newsletter.
